VOLUME 8

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF
W.W. SAMVELL H.S.
DALLAS, TEXAS

Dedication

In recognition and appreciation of your years of devoted service to W. W. Samuell High School, in particular to the senior classes, during which time you have maintained the highest ideals of education, this 1964 Torch is respectfully dedicated to you, Mrs. Lyla Tisdale.

Across the page is a teacher who
I love. Unfailingly
the feeling is mutual - have always friendly chuckles

Foreword

We hope as you leaf through the 1964 Torch in later years that you will be reminded of all meaningful experiences you had which made your life at W. W. Samuell wonderful and rewarding.

In order to depict the spirit and tradition of Samuell, the theme of the 1964 Torch is humorously represented by drawings of various phases of Spartan life. Each drawing is purposefully different to characterize the individuality of each person at Samuell. The many activities in which you will find the "little" Spartans exemplify the varied areas of student life.

Alma Mater

Hail, Samuell High; Hail, Samuell High!
 This song to thee we sing.
 We pledge to thee our loyalty
 As loud our praises ring.
 For always to the Gold and Blue
 Our hearts will still be true
 As fight Spartans we will cry
 Our love for Samuell High.

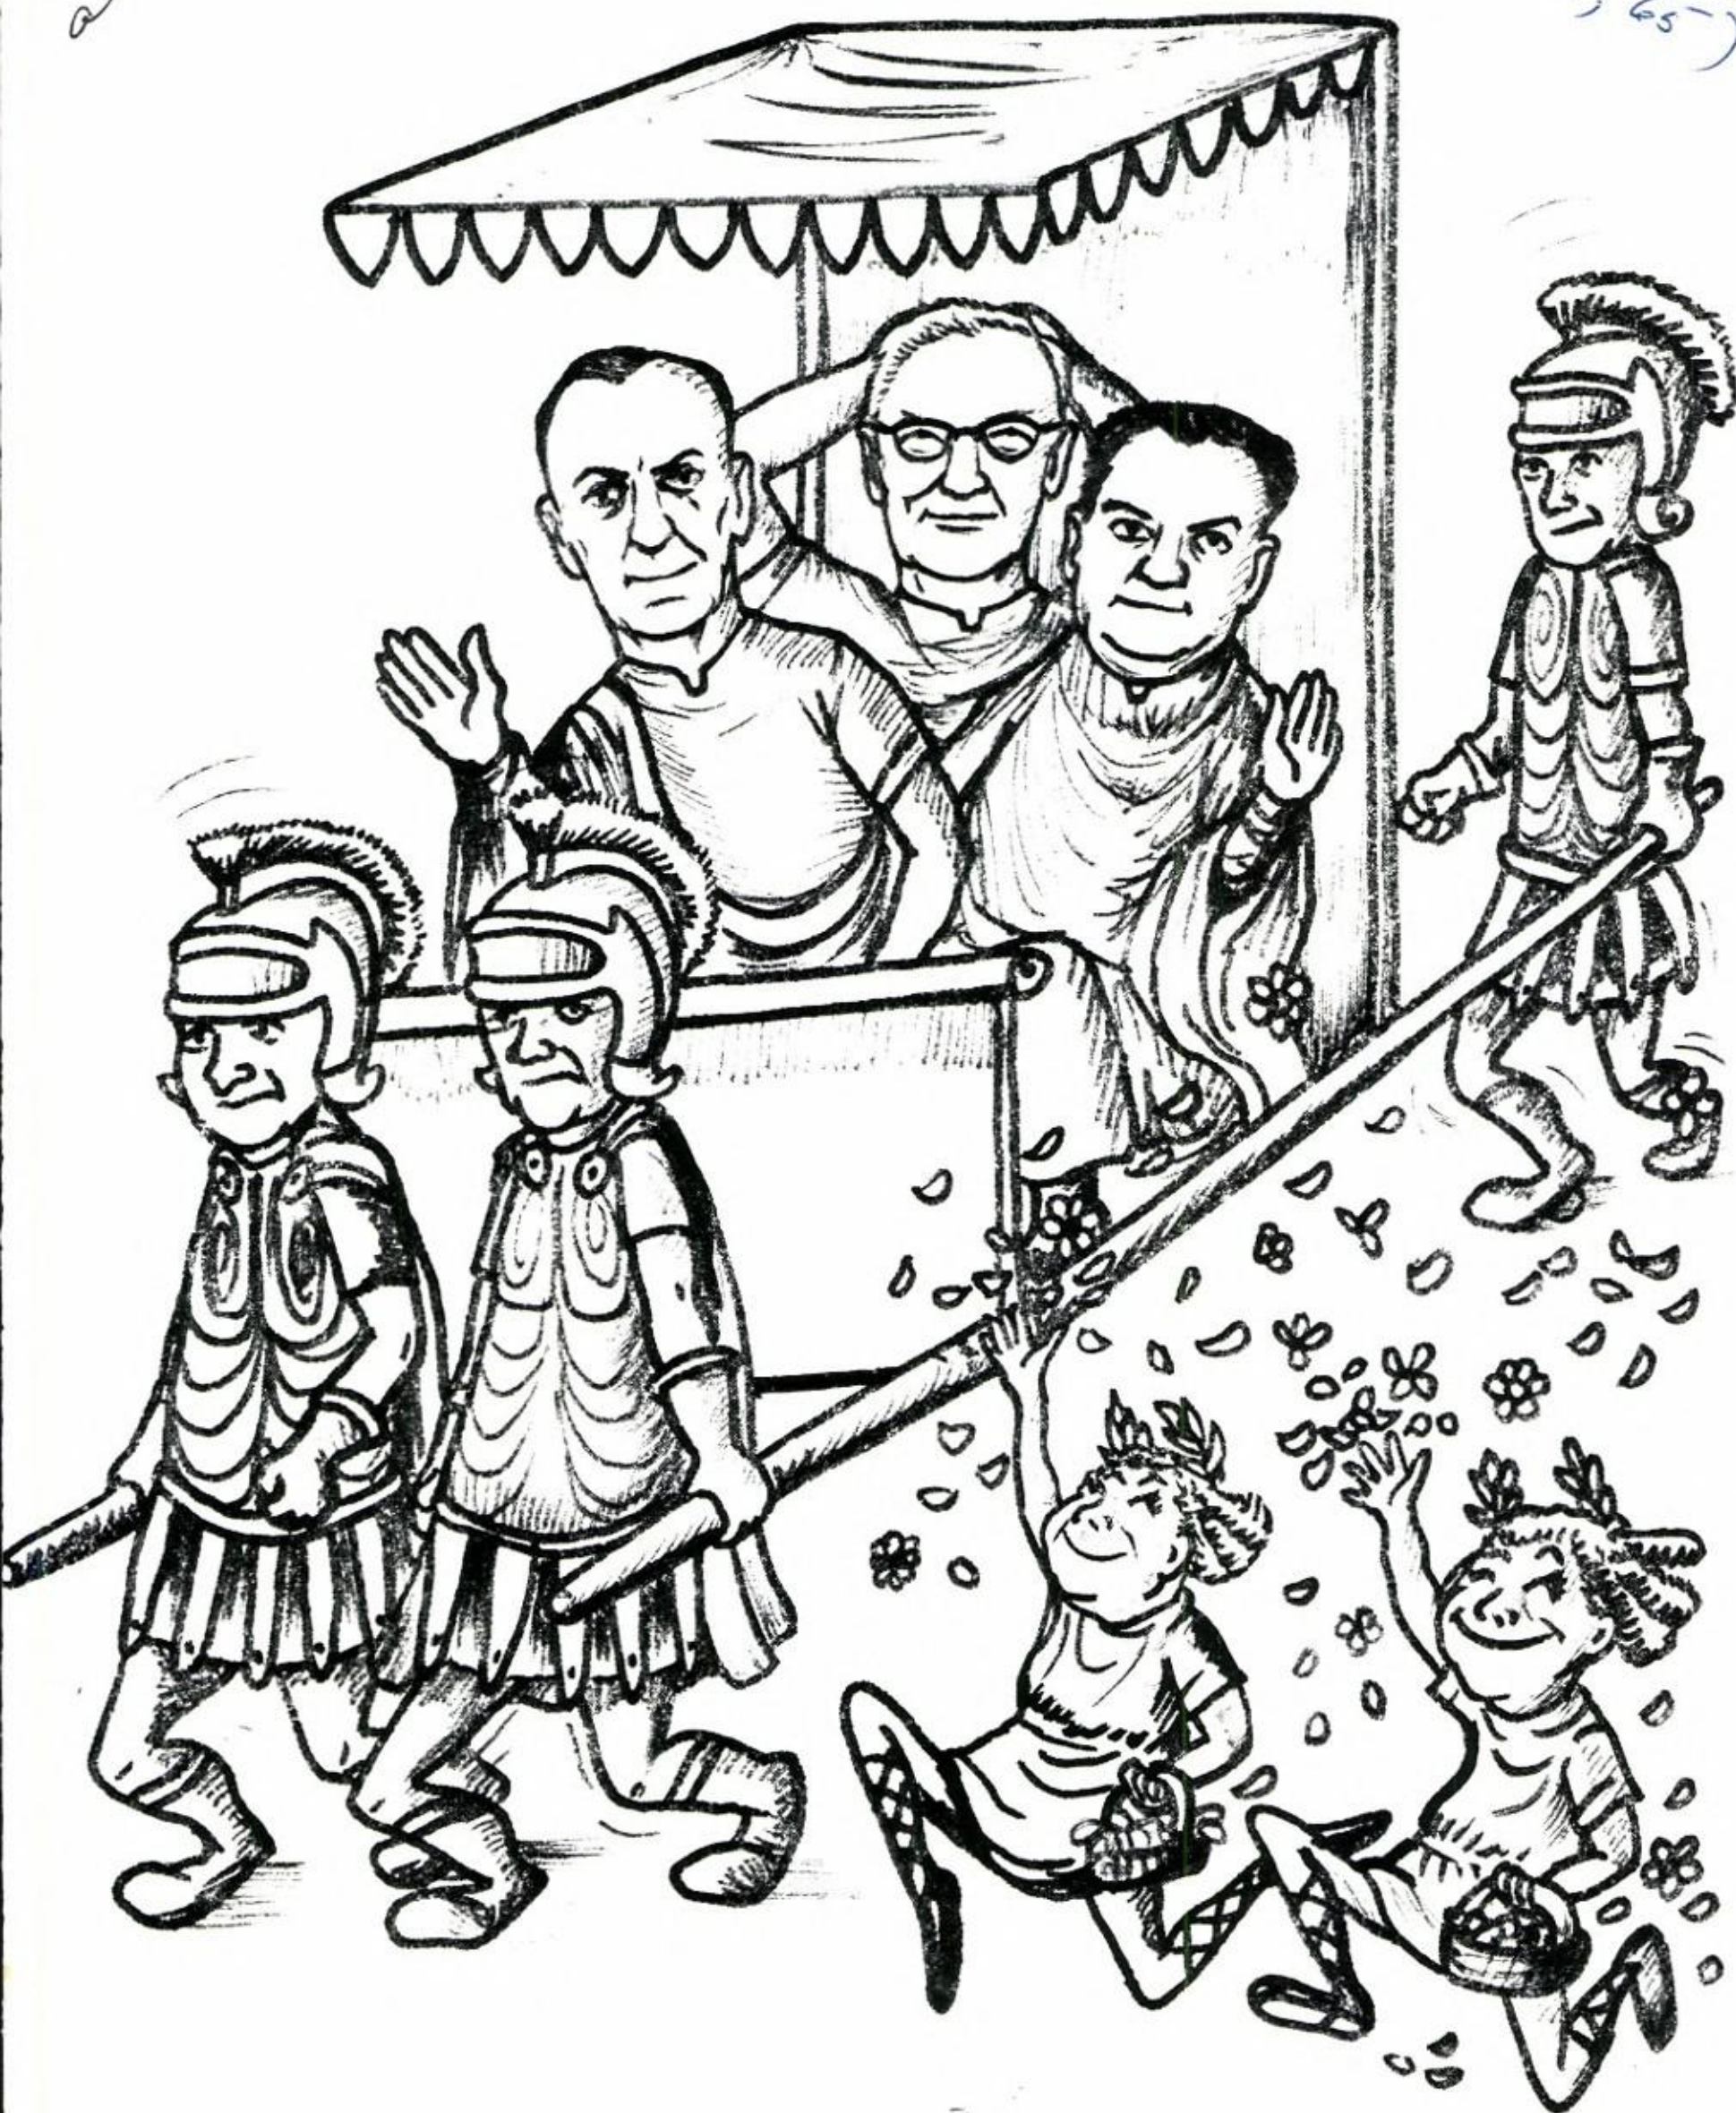

Fight Song

Fight, Spartans, right down the field
 Until we score that victory FIGHT! FIGHT!
 Fight, Spartans, and never yield
 Our pledge of pride and loyalty RAH! RAH!
 To our colors of Gold and Blue
 We ever shall be true.
 GO, SPARTANS, GO
 Go crashing through that line
 And we will cheer you all the time!

Babs, luck in Good luck in your senior year
at Samuell.
Ray (65, Sr.)

Barbara,
lots of luck
through this year

SPARTANS SLIP TO SOC, 20-7

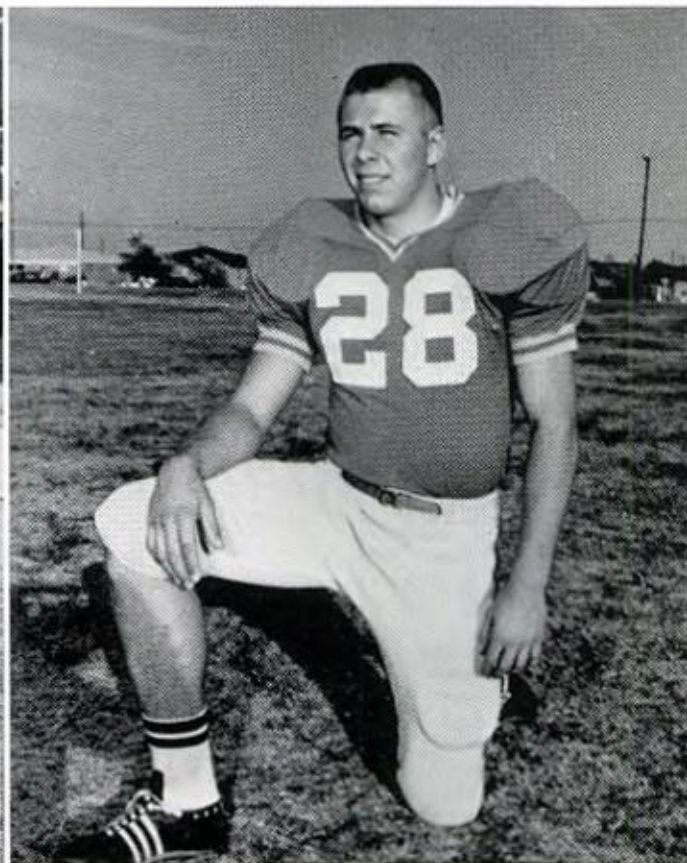

The Spartans grabbed an early lead over SOC with T. Johnson pounding into the end zone but were stunned by an 85 yd. kickoff return by the Golden Bears. The tough Spartan defense held the SOC squad to only 189 yards total offense. The Bears tallied again in the second and third quarters, handing the Spartans a 20-7 defeat.

SPARTANS BUMP BEWILDERED BULLDOGS, 27-6

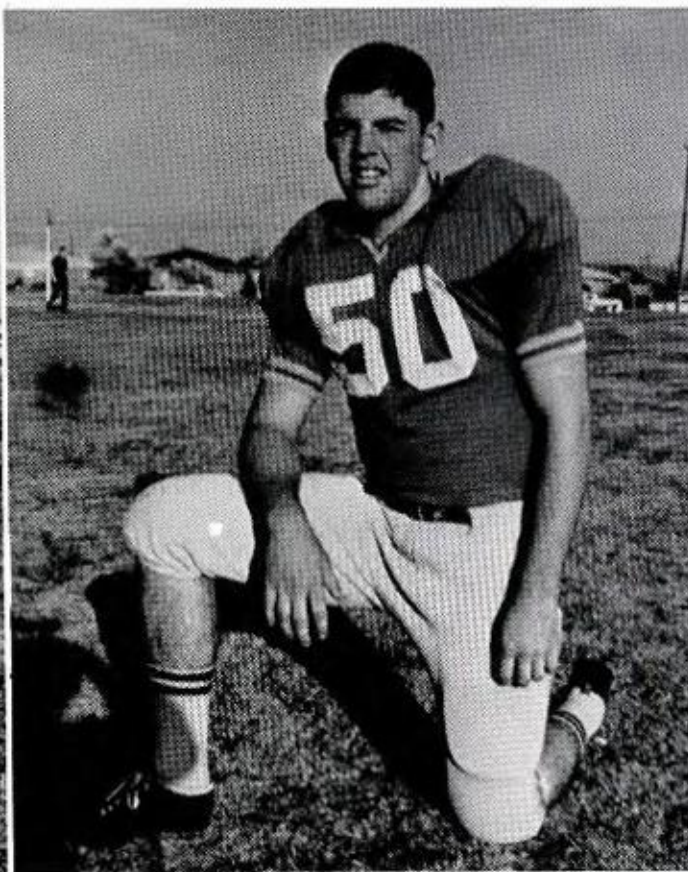

Samuell's charging line led by Bruce Gober tore gapping holes in the Bulldog defense, then smashed North Dallas ball carriers for repeated losses. The Spartans scored touchdowns in each quarter with two by J. Johnson, one by T. Johnson, and one by Stewart Chaney.

SPARTANS BOMB BISONS, 26-6

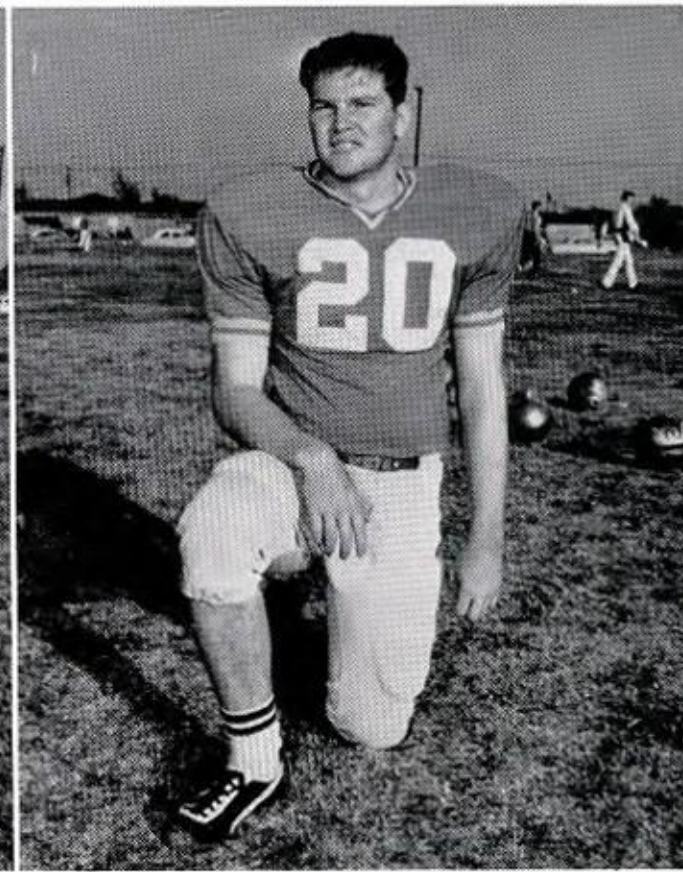

The Samuell Spartans turned on the big guns in the second, third, and fourth quarters leaving Sunset in the smoke. Held scoreless in the first quarter, the Spartans turned on the steam sending Cartledge into the end zone in the second quarter, T. Johnson and Hartless in the third quarter, and Chaney in the fourth quarter on a 55 yard scamper.

SPARTANS PUSH PAST PANTHERS, 14-12

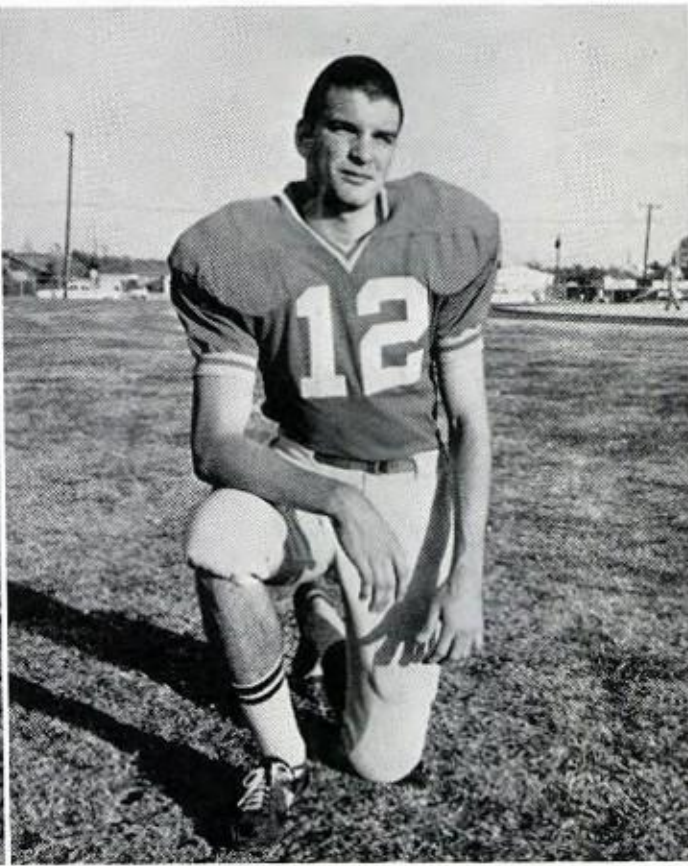

The Samuel Spartans turned a Panther fumble into their first touchdown in the first quarter, then marched 67 yards for another in the second with two extra point conversions by Eddie Newton. T. Johnson and Jerry Jones accounted for the six pointers which caught the Panthers with their claws covered. Hard-knock defense and leather-popping offense paid off for the Spartans in the Cotton Bowl clash.

SPARTANS KNOCK THE KNIGHTS, 7-0

In the second quarter Albert Cartledge and the Spartans capitalized on a Kimball fumble recovered by David Wallace and moved 48 yards for the only score of the game. The fired up Spartans played hard defense and stalled all of the Knight's scoring efforts.

SPARTANS NUDGED BY WILDCATS, 13-12

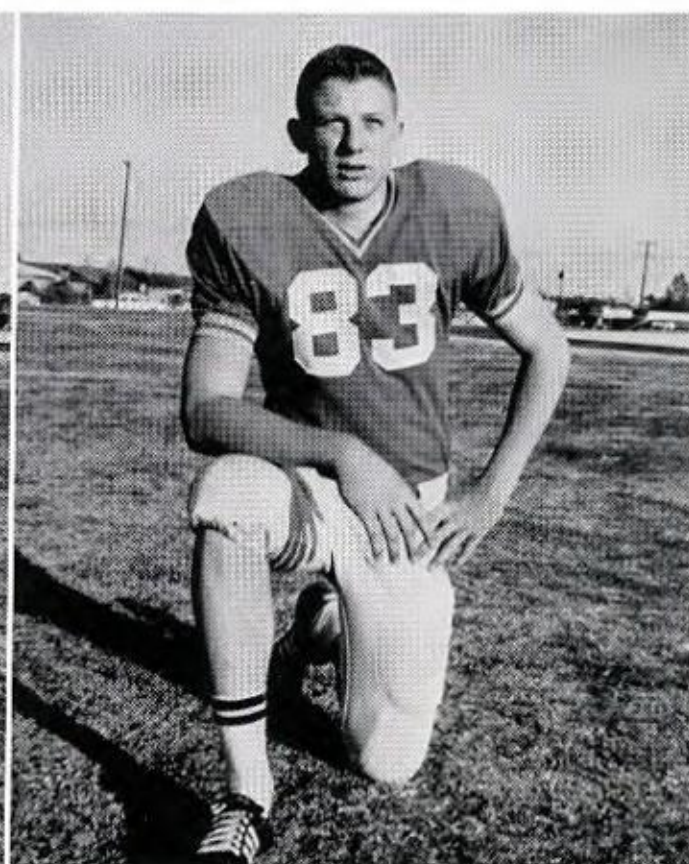

Samuell led the game in everything but the score. A strong wind from the north made the difference as it affected the second point-after attempt. The rugged Spartans led 12-6 at half-time, but a fired up Woodrow Wilson team came back to upset the Samuell offense in the closing moments. In the last 14 seconds Hartless attempted a 16 yard field goal that was deflected at the line.

SPARTANS RIP REBELS, 27-7

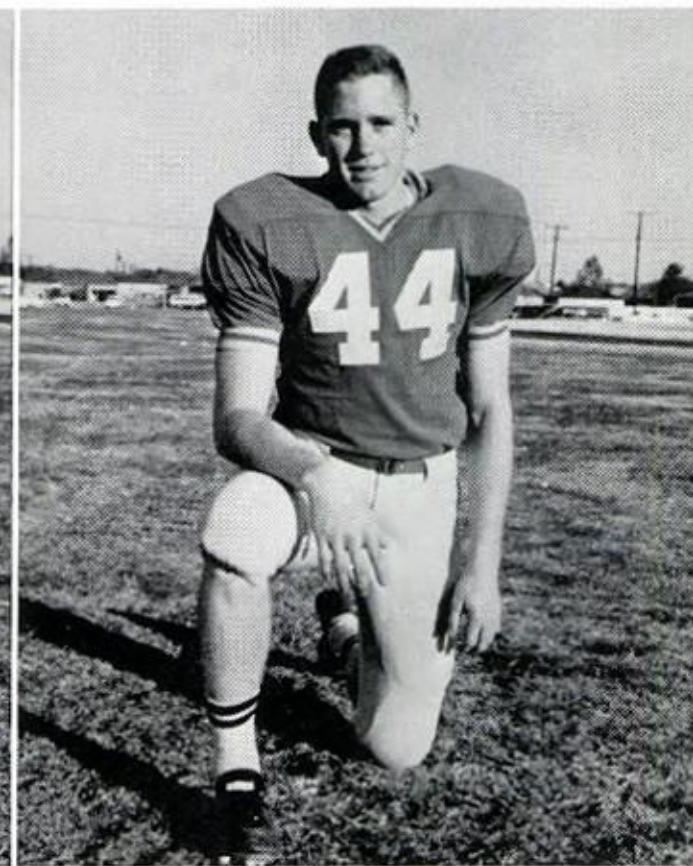

J. Johnson was the top scorer with three of four Spartan touchdowns in the second quarter on runs of 25, 16, and 2 yards. Thomas Jefferson met with a rockribbed defense and quick hitting offense that resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Samuell gridgers.

SPARTANS FALL TO COUGAR CLAWS, 15-0

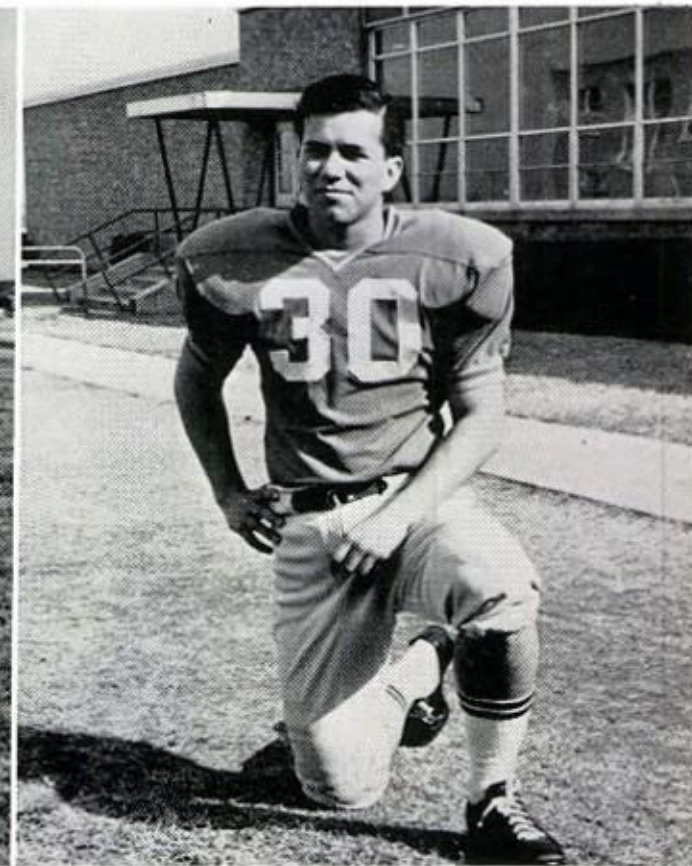

A 30 mph wind and tough Bryan Adams defense held the Samuell Spartans scoreless in the final game of the season. Samuell had trouble getting the ball from the stingy Cougars. The Spartans had several threatening drives in the fourth quarter, but time ran out.

LT. COL. L. D. WITTKOWER,
Commandant

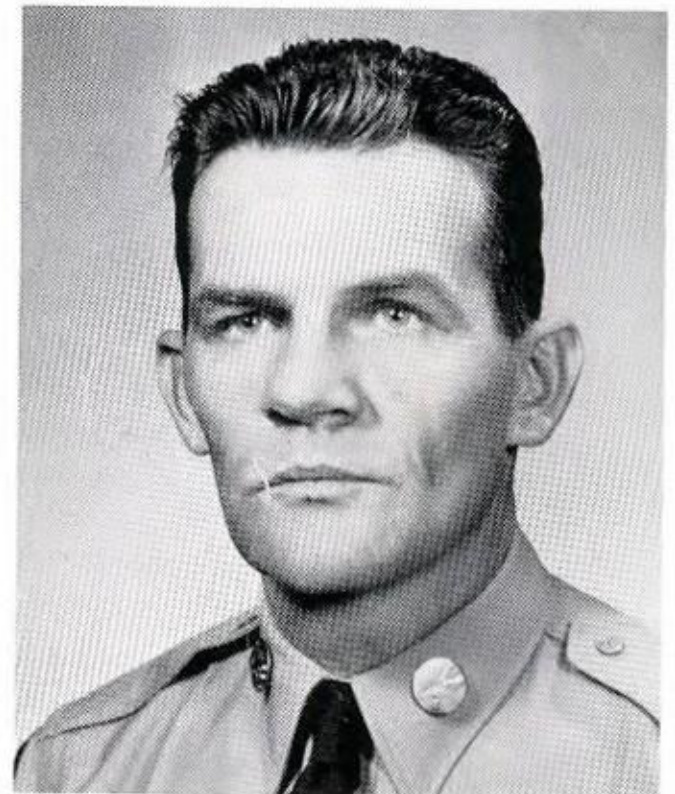

The most important event of the year was the redesignation of the Cadet Corps from NDCC to ROTC by Headquarters, Fourth U. S. Army. Two army sergeants were assigned to W. W. Samuell to assist in the instruction of 291 cadets.

The Rifle Team fired in the following matches: Texas College of Arts and Industries Invitational match; Fourth U.S. Army Interscholastic and Intercollegiate Rifle match; City Gallery match; Arlington State College Fourth U.S. Army invitational match at the Trinity Valley Rifle Range. High point of the year was the winning of second place in the All City Match and the winning of six bronze medals by the team.

Drill Team activities for the year included two competitions: one at the Arlington State College Invitational Meet and one at the Dallas High Schools Field Day. In the Wozencraft Individual Drill, Samuell was represented by Cadet Col. Don Perry, Lt. Co. Mike Shaddock and Lt. Col. Wayne Watkins, Shaddock finished in the final squad and earned fifth place in the city.

Smedley Didn't Buy The Official Class Ring.

He went bargain hunting. He thought all class rings were alike. He hadn't heard that the official class rings is official because it is made to rigid specifications for the protection of the student body. Neither, apparently, had he heard that it is made by Balfour, the most distinguished creator of fine class rings in the entire world.

A splendid fellow, Smedley. But there are reasons to suspect he is not completely in step with the times.
